LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

HALF SHEET.

We are under the necessity of issuing a half sheet this week, on account of an accident to our foreman, by reason of which he loses the use of his right hand for a week or more. We have heretofore tried to get help when we were in a tight place, but have met with such uniform failures in that particular, that we concluded that we would run the machine for one week without any additional help. We regret the necessity of putting out a half sheet at this particular time, as it is now getting along towards the Winter Holidays, at which time, we, with all other well regulated offices, miss an issue, and take a week in which to see a little of the world. We will have to leave out a number of advertisements, and give about one-half the usual amount of reading matter, but we will make up to our advertisers the loss, and beg our readers to "put themselves in our place," and exercise charity toward our one instance of shortcoming in this particular.

James Henderson of Hickory, last week killed three hogs, that averaged four hundred lbs. A good deal of pork for that number of hogs.

Silk Gimp, Silk Erin, Silk Velvet Ribbons, Gimpure Laces, Silk and Velvet Buttons, and all kinds of Dress Trimmings for sale at Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. Church in this place, on Thursday next at 2 o'clock P. M. Rev. S. S. Burton will deliver a discourse on the occasion, and all are invited to attend.

—A full line of All Wool Long and Square, Imitation Paisley, and Black Merino Shawls for sale at Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—The first quarterly meeting for Hickory Circuit, will be held in the M. E. Church at East Hickory on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 21 and 22. Rev. O. L. Mead, P. E., is expected to be present. A general invitation is extended.

—Extracts, Perfumery, Hair Oils, Tooth Brushes, Combs and all kinds of Toilet Articles at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—The weather within the last week has "swung around the circle," and we have had specimens of all sorts. Rain, snow, freezing, thawing, and blowing. To day, Monday, the weather is cold, with prospects of snow.

—A full line of Underwear, knit and Woolen Goods to be received soon at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Capt. C. K. Hume, of Cambridgeboro, Pa., has been sojourning in this section for some time past, enjoying the hunting, and visiting his brother, Rev. J. A. Hume. He returned home last week. May his reflection never become more attenuated.

—A full line of Ladies' and Gents' fall and winter Silk, Silks, Lisle and Pile Lined Gloves at Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—On next Thursday evening, a dance will be given by the Forest Brass Band, at the Holmes House. A good band will be in attendance, and we are assured that every means will be employed to secure good order. Bill reasonable.

—Table Linen, Toweling, Linen Napkins, Plain Irish Linen, Bird's Eye and all kinds of Linen and Linen Goods at Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. Church, at East Hickory on next Thursday. The Pastor, Rev. J. A. Hume, will officiate. Let there be a full turn out—a general coming into the presence of the Lord, to thank Him for His continual mercies.

—We notice by the Clarion Democrat that Miss Adella Roberts, of this place been elected and installed Vice President of the Webster Literary, at Carrier Seminary. We will warrant that Miss Roberts will occupy the position with honor to herself, and benefit to the Society.

THANKSGIVING.

Thursday of this week is the day appointed by the President of the United States, and also the Governor of Pennsylvania, to be observed by the people as one of "Thanksgiving to Almighty God for our State, National and individual blessings, and of prayer for the continuance of His favor." As far as possible, let this day be observed by the people of this county. We of the East, more especially, have reason to be thankful that we have escaped the terrible dangers and loss by fire to which our Western neighbors have been subjected. Let us then, on this day devote as much of our time as may be spared to the duties which are commended by our chief magistrates of Nation and State, and endeavor, as much as possible to prove our gratitude for the blessings of the past year by deeds of charity and love.

—Good styles of Paper Collars for 10 cts. a box, at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—The frame of Capt. Knox's new building is raised, and should the weather continue favorable, will soon be enclosed. The building is to be three stories high, with a French roof, and to front 84 feet on Elm St. The Post Office will be removed to a portion of this building as soon as it is finished.

—Lace and Linen Collars in great variety, at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—The case of Dale vs. Wilkins, which was to have been tried in the District Court at Pittsburgh last week, was put over, and is to be tried at the next session of the District Court at Erie, which is to be held commencing the 24th Monday of January.

—The newest styles of Ladies' Corsets at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Quite an interest is now being taken in the noble game of chess, by some of our young folks and middle-aged citizens. It is a game which requires close application and profound study, and hence is an unsocial game for third parties.

—Just received—a new lot of Coatings and Cosmetics, at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Thomas Selders, of Kingsley Township has departed this life. He agreed to come and split some stone for me last Tuesday, if he lived. He did not come, so I must suppose he is dead.

—A full line and superior quality of Silk Ribbons, received and for sale at Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Mr. Minton, the gentlemanly agent of J. C. Hall's Music Store, was in town one day last week, and made us a call. He reports business lively. We recommend all our readers who wish to purchase musical instruments, to give him a trial. If he cannot suit you in style and price, there is no use of looking any further.

—Photograph Pictures and Frames at the Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—H. H. Stow, Esq., of East Hickory, has gone to Virginia, prospecting for timber lands. We hope he may not purchase enough so that it will require his personal supervision, as he could not well be spared from the county. We don't think Hickory Township, especially, would entertain a thought that he could live anywhere else but in Hickory.

—Hard to beat—that new lot of Gents' Paper Collars, just received at Superior Lumber Co. Store.

—Mr. L. Cass Siggins has been appointed Station Agent at Hickory station, in place of W. M. Lapsley, resigned. Mr. Lapsley was at that station but a short time, but had already become quite popular with the inhabitants. He also held the office of Postmaster, and his mantle falls upon Mr. Siggins as his successor in that position. The new incumbent has our best wishes for his success.

—Some individuals whose names we do not remember, drowned their sorrows and also their wits in the flowing bowl, on Saturday evening last, and made the night hideous until one or two o'clock in the morning. Such occasions are very seldom about here, and they had ought to be made still more seldom. We think the jail is a very healthy place for drunk and noisy men to end off in, and we hope the next cases may have a chance to test its efficacy.

—The Atlantic Monthly offers attractions for the coming year unequalled if before equalled in its history. Among the new features will be "the life of Jefferson" in detachable chapters, each perfect in itself, by James Parton; A new serial story by Mr. DeMille, author of the "Dodge Club," "The American Baron" &c., will appear to be called "The Comedy of Terrors." Several other interesting features will be added, and we are assured that the editors were never able to promise more than for the coming year. Terms $4 a year. James R. Osgood & Co., Publishers, Boston, Mass.

The Falling of a Building in Titusville.

The Titusville papers of Tuesday last give the particulars of the falling in of a portion of the Roberts Block, on Monday night. A portion of the debris struck a building occupied by J. H. Whalon, as a grocery store and residence. Mr. and Mrs. Whalon, Mr. Ballantine and wife, and a servant girl of Mr. Whalon's, narrowly escaped with their lives. A little son of Mr. Whalon's was buried in the ruins and when taken out life was found to be extinct. He had died from suffocation. The Roberts building adjoined the Parshall Opera House, and Frank Mayo's troupe were playing to a crowded house at the time of the accident, and it was only by the presence of mind of the players, and some few of the audience, that a panic was averted. The loss is from $20,000 to $25,000. There has been much excitement about the accident in Titusville during the last week. A coroner's inquest was held over the body of the boy which returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

—New chandeliers and lamps are being purchased for the Court House, and we are assured that the improvement will be great. Now we would suggest that trees be planted on the grounds next spring, also with a very small outlay, there might be a fountain constructed in the yard, to be fed by some of the springs on the hill above. But little work and money are required to make this the most pleasant place in town.

—We clip the following matrimonial announcement from the Clarion Democrat:

On the 15th inst., at the house of the bride's parents, on Thom's Run, Clarion county, Pa., by Rev. D. Swartz, Mr. William Strauchman, Woodstock, Ontario, Canada, to Miss M. Ella Framton, of Clarion county, Pa. William! is it possible? Ah! our faith in human nature is shaken. Only a few weeks we met you face to face, and nothing in your actions, countenance or conversation indicated that you were meditating this step. Why, O! Why did you not inform us that you were soon to leave the ranks of single blessedness, and be one of us no more. We miss thee sadly, but presume, of course, you do not share our feelings. We wish you and yours a happy time as long as ye both shall live.

—Beaver—The Ohio River—Court Week—Dr. Taylor's Seminary Patrons, &c.

BEAVER, Nov. 18, 1871.
This town, the county seat of Beaver County, is beautifully located and was generously laid out by its founder nearly a hundred years since. The plateau on which the town stands, is known as the second bank of the Ohio river and lies about a hundred feet above high water mark giving beautiful and picturesque views on every side. The soil is gravelly, affording most perfect drainage, thus conducing to the proverbial healthfulness of the location. It is supplied with the purest water from springs in the sides of the bluff, which rises in the rear of the town.

The Ohio, which it seems to your correspondent, should be slack-waters at an early day, has risen to a boatable stage and is bearing to the destitute markets of the south coal by the million bushels, and iron and glass and other manufactures to the amount of millions of dollars in value. It is to be hoped this rise may have extended to your own beautiful Allegheny so as to allow your suffering lumbermen to push out their numerous rafts of boards, and of lumber that have so long been tied up for want of water.

Our Court has been occupied most of the week in the trial of a young man for murder. After listening to the evidence the jury was compelled to bring a verdict of wilful murder, and this day the man is to be sentenced to death. How sad the thought; and how loudly does the youthfulness of many of the criminals of the day proclaim to parents, teachers, and Sabbath school laborers, that they should be up and doing while the early childhood days last, that good seed may be sown in the hearts of the little ones and youth that shall bring forth good and not evil to society.

The Beaver Seminary and Musical Institute, the pride and hope of our town, and whose advantages have long been appreciated by many of your citizens, is in a most prosperous condition. A new and distinct building for the accommodation of boys has been erected the present term, in which a few rooms are yet unoccupied, but we doubt not they will be filled at the opening of the Winter term, Jan. 2, 1872. Wherever the public have been made aware that additional rooms have been provided in this institution they have not been slow to occupy them. The musical advantages offered here in connection with the thoroughness of the institution, security of the location and family character of the school, make it a desideratum to those who would seek superior training for their children. The patrons of the institution are among the most intelligent and refined of the State, and yet its prices are not such as to secure the patronage of the shoddy element and of those who wish to continue that in their families. More anon, CITIZEN.

Carrier Seminary and Normal College at Clarion, Opened Sept. 21, 1871.

It is with no ordinary pleasure that we commend to our readers this institution. It is every way worth its widely growing reputation and just such a school as thoughtful parents, who desire to give their children a practical education, will be rejoiced to find. It aims at a broad and generous culture and by a thorough training to fit young men and women for the duties and responsibilities of life. The influences of a christian home are combined with the advantages of a school of highest grade. The charges are moderate—less than any other school in the State affording equal advantages. The Faculty is full. The Normal College prepares teachers for common schools. The Musical Department is unequalled by any institution in the State. An accomplished Professor is in charge of every department. Pianos, Organs, &c., are furnished for a full course. The large and beautiful buildings are fitted up in excellent style, and every possible preparation is making for the Winter term which commences November 30th. The discipline of the school is exact, and the institution deserves the large and select patronage which it will receive. Send to Prof. J. J. Steadman, A. M., Clarion, Pa., for a circular.—Clarion Republican.

Burlington.

Leaving the East and arriving at Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best line is acknowledged to be the C. & B. & Q., joined together with the B. & M. Railroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington, and called the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

The main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Route, and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Middle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth, passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, forming the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles.

Another branch of the B. M., diverging at Red Oak, falls into a line running down the Missouri through St. Joe to Kansas City, and all Kansas. Passengers by this route to Kansas, see Illinois, Southern Iowa, and Missouri, and by a slight divergence, can see Nebraska also.

Lovers of fine views should remember the Burlington Route, for its towns "high-gleaming from afar"—its tree-fingering steams—its rough bluffs and quarries—its corn-oceans stretching over the prairies further than eye can reach.

Land-buyers will be sure to remember it, for they have friends among the two thousand who have already bought farms from Geo. S. Harris, the Land Commissioner of the B. & M. R. R. at Burlington, Iowa, or among the four thousand home-steaders and preemptions who last year filed claims in the Lincoln land office, where "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm."

The Best Jewelry House

In Northwestern Pennsylvania is situated on the corner of Water and Chestnut Streets, Meadville, Pa., and is owned by M. P. Jenks. He has just received a large and superior stock of Jewelry, which he has marked down to the bottom figures, and we can conscientiously recommend this house to our readers if they want any thing in that line. The stock is very extensive, and one cannot fail to suit himself in anything in this line. Give Jenks a call when you go to Meadville, and you will not regret it. 27 tf

SMALL POX.—We deem it best always, in cases of danger, to give the exact truth in regard thereto, so that no exaggerations may go before the public. We have one case of small pox in town, and only one. All proper precautionary measures have been taken by the borough authorities and people, and vaccination is being universally attended to. We do not apprehend any spread of the disease, and therefore say to our friends outside of town, do not stay away, but come and trade as usual.—Tidouette Journal.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

Notices of the Press.

"It is really the only illustrated chronicle of fashion in the country. The illustrations alone are worth the subscription price of the paper. While fully maintaining its position as a mirror of fashion, it also contains stories, poems, brilliant essays, leading general and personal gossip."—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

There never was any paper published that so delighted the heart of woman. Ever noted if it does cost you a new bonnet; it will save you ten times the price in the household economy it teaches."—Providence Journal.

The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harper publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can not profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation, N. Y.

FIFTH YEAR.

A Representative and Champion of American Art.

THE ALDINE.

An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed to be the handsomest Paper in the World.

NEW FEATURES FOR 1872.

ART DEPARTMENT.
As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American Artists:

W. T. Richards, Victor Sehnig,
Wm. Hart, Wm. H. Wilcox,
Wm. Bead, James H. Beard,
George Smiley, Frank Seely,
Aug. W. B. Placet, R. H. Placet,
Granville Perkins, Frank Reed,
F. O. C. Darley, Paul Dixon,
J. Hova.

These pictures are being reproduced without reward to expense, by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Whereas no nation attracts more notice and attention and sets up the world's much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, it is only necessary to state, that the editor of the Aldine, Mr. H. B. ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

THE VOLUME FOR 1872

will contain nearly 300 pages, and about 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful colored picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece. The Christmas number for 1872, will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fifty engravings, four in color, and although retailed at $1 will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers.

A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with more present and future. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by Sims, entitled "DAME NATHAN'S School." The chromo is 11x13 inches, and is an exact fac-simile in size and appearance, of the original picture. No American chromo, which will at all compare with it, has yet been offered at retail for less than the price asked for THE ALDINE and it together. It will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.

TERMS FOR 1872.

One copy, one year, with Old Chromo $5.00
Five Copies, " " " 20.00
Any person sending 10 names and $40 will receive an extra copy gratis, making 11 copies for the money.
Any person wishing to work for a premium, can have our premium circular on application. We give many beautiful and desirable articles offered by no other paper. Any person wishing to act as a permanent agent, as our agent, will apply, with references, enclosing $1 for outfit.
